"LONDON LINES"

This weekend we offer a warm London welcome to our guests from Northumberland in this their debut season in the Premier League. We do not have to go back very far to recall the last meeting between our two counties, which came in the final of the British K.O. Cup, last year, in Pwhelli. We were very much on course for the League and Cup Double, that is until we met the Northumberland lads, only to lose 8-7 in the final.

This weekend will hopefully see the continued progress of our two ladies' teams who have enjoyed a marvellous season, as well as a much needed win for our mens' teams. Northumberland will also be looking for a good all round performance to ease any outside chances of relegation, and who knows, if the draw works out we may even see a re-match of that tremendous World Pro Final between Eric and Jocky - you never know!!

It's been a long trip south for our guests and whilst, quite naturally, I hope we leave them little to take back in the way of points, I do hope they have an enjoyable and memorable weekend with us.

LONDON LADIES SUPER LEAGUE REPORT

At the time of going to press, Kensington are again leading the table, and with only four games remaining are beginning to look like champions again. Leading positions:-

	Played	Won	Points
Kensington	12	11	118
Haringey	13	11	113
Leytonstone	14	7	89
Waltham Forest	13	5	81
West Ham	12	6	81

Mina Nightingale (Haringey) is currently top of the averages with 29.91, followed by Tricia Wright (Kensington) 29.70 and June Myers (Waltham Forest) 29.44. The same three players also contest the tons table with June and Mina joint top with 53 and Tricia close behind on 50. The draw for the semi-finals of the singles title is as follows: Frances Aidis (West Ham) v Rita Morris (Kensington) and Sandy Thomas (West Ham) v Sharon Colclough (Leytonstone). Good luck to these girls and all the others who will be competing for various titles this season. The inaugural K.O. Cup Final will be between Kensington and Leytonstone and, as you can see from the League positions, it promises to be a 'close encounter of the first kind'!! I would like to take this opportunity, as this is our last home county game of 1989, to thank all the players and team secretaries for their support during the season. Finally, every success to our 'A' and 'B' county teams who are both in close contention for their respective League titles.

KEITH NIGHTINGALE
LONDON LADIES SUPER LEAGUE SECRETARY

LONDON MENS SUPER LEAGUE REPORT

It will take a minor miracle to stop Brentford from recording their second consecutive mens super league title and once again it looks as though Leyton, for the umpteenth time, will take the runners-up spot. The newly formed first division however is much more closely contested with Dagenham and Waltham Forest having a battle royal at the top.

Premier	Pts	First	Pts
Brentford	149	Dagenham	162
Leyton	138	Waltham Forest	157
Kensington	117	Islington	132
West Ham	107	Leytonstone	126

Kensington and Brentford each supply two players for the quarter finals of the London super league singles which is as follows:- Chris Cahill (Kensington), Steve Crook (Kensington), Martin Giles (Tottenham), Peter Wright (Plumstead), Peter Evison (Brentford), Charlie Holdaway (Brentford), Ian Sarfas (West Ham) and Micky Lawler (Leyton).

Reg Harding (Leyton) remains, where he has been all season, at the top of the averages with 39.54, followed by Keith Arber (Hackney) 38.91 and Charlie Holdaway (Brentford) 37.50.

Finally, my congratulations to Nicky Turner and John Carrington who beat Grant Firmager and Mark Lovell to qualify for the final stages of the John Bull Bitter Masters.

ALAN FULLER
MENS SUPER LEAGUE SECRETARY
