LADIES SUPERLEAGUE REPORT

With the second half of the season now under way, the league table top positions look like this:

	P	W	PTS
ALDGATE	8	8	81
WALTHAM FOREST	9	7	76
HARINGEY	8	7	72
WEST HAM	9	6	67

Aldgate still dominate the average table, with Deta Hedman top with 30.07, followed by Mandy Solomons with 29.08 and Lynne Ormond with 28.13. Deta still leads the individual table with a 27.83.

The tons table has Deta also at the top with 54, followed by Tricia Wright of West Ham with 44 and Mandy Solomons with 41. Eleven girls have hit a maximum this season, but so far all have hit it only once.

Amelia Stocker of Brentford still tops the highest finish with a game shot of 140.

The latest county rankings table shows Tricia Wright still top with 24 points, with Sharon Colclough of Waltham Forest and Lynne Ormond of Aldgate joint second with 21 points followed by Joanne Haynes of Haringey with 12 points.

Finally, congratulations to June Myers of Waltham Forest on reaching the last sixteen of the British open and to Apylee Jones of Haringey, and a member of the very successful London youth team, who reached the last eight before losing to eventual champion Sandra Greatbatch.

Talking Point

LONDON LINES

I hope you all had a great Christmas and are now gradually readjusting to life in the slow lane once more. On behalf of the executive committee may I extend our wish for a successful 1992 to all of you. As far as the London county teams are concerned, we could not have wished for a more successful end to 1991. With all four teams on the winning trail once more against Northumberland, our unbeaten 'A' and 'B' team run has now been stretched to 18 games. I think it is fair to offer our congratulations to Steve McHale and Dave Whitcombe for their winning London debuts in the 'B' and 'A' teams respectively. Dave's in particular was a real classic against Jocky Wilson. This weekend we face a stiff challenge from our friends from Hampshire and I would like to extend a warm welcome to their players, officials and supporters. Although you may have thought that we have seen off the challenge of some of the top counties, I can assure you the road to the championship, for both the men and ladies, will not become any easier beginning with today's matches against Hampshire. Having said that, I do not think anyone involved with London can have been anything but totally impressed with the commitment shown by all of our players this season. Well done to one and all. This weekend sees a welcome return to the T L and R Club and I would like to thank Jerry Lerman and his staff for making this possible. It is a great spectator venue but unfortunately not so conducive when young children are allowed to run about, as they did last time we were here. I trust all parents with young children will bear this in mind this weekend. Finally, I'm sure you would like to join me in congratulating Graham Miller on his achievement in reaching the last 8 of the Embassy World Pro, a position which guarantees him entry to the event next year. Well done Skipper we are all very proud of you.
